Dear Hiroshi,

Thank you for your e-mail. I really enjoyed seeing your pictures. I was happy to see you and your family in them.

Today I want your *advice. I love playing the piano and playing basketball. I started my piano lessons when I was five years old. I think I am good at playing it. When I play my favorite songs on the piano, I feel so happy. Then, when I was eleven, I started playing basketball. Playing basketball with my friends is a lot of fun. Also, by playing it, I learned an important thing. That is to help each other.

But now I think it's better to choose the piano or basketball.

First, . I sometimes worry about my *fingers during my basketball games. When I *hurt my fingers, I cannot play the piano. My sister also loves the piano, and she played basketball when she was young. But she stopped playing it because she didn't want to hurt her fingers. She still likes watching basketball games, but she doesn't play it now. I like playing basketball better than watching it. So I don't want to stop playing it easily.

Next, . I hear we can be really good at something if we practice it for 10,000 hours. My sister is so good at playing the piano because she spends a lot of time at the piano. I want to play the piano like her. Also, I really like my basketball team. I want to play basketball better and help my team. But I will not have time to practice both the piano and basketball.

I like both the piano and basketball, and I don't know what to do. I want your advice. What do you think?

Your friend,

Mary
