4 次の [1] ~ [4] は, Mr. Ito と中学 2 年生の Ken, Emma, Yui の会話です。これらを読んで, 問 1 ~ 問 7 に答えなさい。*印のついている語句には, 本文のあとに〔注〕があります。(25 点)

[1] 〈In the classroom, Mr. Ito tells the students about the field trip.〉

Mr. Ito : We are going on a field trip to Keyaki City next month. There are a lot of places to visit. On the day of the field trip, we will meet at Keyaki West Park at 9 a.m. Each group will start there and come back to the park by 3 p.m. So, you have six hours of group time.

Ken : Can we decide where to go?

Mr. Ito : Yes, but you need to go to one of the four places on the list as a check point, so the teachers can see how you are doing. Today, I want you to choose which place to visit as a check point in a group *discussion.

Ken : Uh, it is hard to choose one. We need more information.

Mr. Ito : You can use books or the Internet to get information.

Emma : Can we take a taxi?

Mr. Ito : No. You can travel on foot, by bus or by train.

Yui : How much money can we take on the trip?

Mr. Ito : You can bring *up to 3,000 yen for the *fares, *admission tickets, and lunch.

Yui : I see.

Mr. Ito : During the trip, don't forget to take pictures and *take notes about something you did. These will help you with your presentation after the trip. OK, please start your group discussions.

2 〈Ken tells the others his idea.〉

- Emma : Ken, which place are you interested in?
 Ken : I am interested in the Sakuraso Tower because we can walk there from Keyaki West Park. It is the tallest building in the area, so we can enjoy the beautiful view from the *observation deck. If it's sunny, we will see the beautiful mountains. In the tower, we can enjoy a *planetarium show. The show is about thirty minutes long and performed once every ninety minutes. The tower also has a lot of restaurants and shops.
 Emma : That sounds exciting!
 Ken : I really recommend it.
 Yui : How much is a ticket for both the observation deck and the planetarium?
 Ken : Here is the admission ticket price list. We are students, so we can get a 10 percent *discount from the adult price.
 Yui : So, the cheapest ticket for us for both *attractions *costs 2,430 yen. Umm... It's difficult to do everything we want.
 Emma : I agree with you, Yui. Though we get a student discount, it's still expensive. It's better to choose only one thing to do at the tower.
 Ken : I see.

Hi, everyone. I am going to talk about my hobby. I like to watch movies. When I watch a movie, I can relax and enjoy the story. Last week, I watched a movie *based on a man's life. It was about the professional basketball player, Michael Carter. His team won *championships three times. He also joined the Olympics on a national team and got a gold *medal. His life *seemed to be going well, until one day everything changed. During a game, he broke his leg. A doctor said to him, "You should stop playing basketball because your leg can't *handle it." He was so *disappointed because he could not continue playing basketball. But he never gave up his work *related to basketball. A few years later, he became a *coach and made his team stronger. I thought that it would be difficult for an *ordinary person to *overcome this situation, but Carter did.

I learned about this story through the movie, but there is an original book which this movie is based on. I finished reading the book yesterday and enjoyed it, too. Now, I have a question for you. If you want to enjoy a story, which do you like better, reading the book or watching the movie?
