Let's start.

Today is our last day of English class. Your English has improved a lot, and I really enjoyed my English classes with all of you. I still remember our first English class two years ago. Most of you were quiet when I asked you something in English. Now, you try to talk to me in English. That makes me happy.

Well, let me tell you how English is useful for communication. This is a story about Chika, my Japanese friend. When she visited a shrine in Kyoto, a tourist asked her to take a picture in Chinese. Chika couldn't speak Chinese, so she talked with her in English. After that, they talked to each other in simple English. Chika thought the English she learned at school is useful for communicating with people from other countries.

Please remember this. It's wonderful to talk with people from different countries. Please keep learning English. It will help you in the future. Thank you.

Question 1 : Why is Mr. Jones happy now?

Question 2 : What did a tourist ask Chika to do at the shrine in Kyoto?

Question 3 : Which is true about Mr. Jones' speech?

(英文と質問を繰り返します。)

Listen to the talk between Kenta and Emily, a student from the U.S., and read the questions. Then write the answer in English for questions 1, 2 and 3.

Let's start.

Emily : Hi, Kenta. You look happy.

Kenta : Hi, Emily. My friend, Shinji, is coming from Aichi to see me next Saturday.

Emily : That's great. Did you live in Aichi?

Kenta : Yes. But, because of my father's job, my family left Aichi two years ago.

Emily : I see. How long have you been friends with him?

Kenta : For five years. When I was ten years old, I joined one of the baseball teams there. Shinji was on the same team.

Emily : Does he still play baseball?

Kenta : Yes, he does. He is a member of the baseball club at his school. We will play baseball together in the park. Do you have any plans for next Saturday, Emily?

Emily : Yes. I'm going to some bookstores in Tokyo. I have been looking for some English books about nature in Japan, but I couldn't find them at the bookstores in this city.

Kenta : I hope you can find the books you want.

Emily : Thanks. Oh, the next class starts in a few minutes. See you, Kenta.
